

NO MENU RESTAURANT EVENTS

No Menu is our family style Italian Restaurant located at a cosy shophouse at Boon Tat Street: Osvaldo has chosen this location because it is exactly in between the heritage Chinatown and the modern Business District.

When you step in No Menu you really feel to be at Osvaldo's Home surrounded by a living gallery of rustic heirlooms, pictures and keepsakes from the Forlino's House in Italy. Everything here tells you a story of our Family's journey.

"No Menu" introduces a new Italian concept in Singapore, which is usual in the family restaurants back in our country: our degustation menu is a surprise selection of many tasting portions from the Seasonal Market, simple and fresh, or choose from the succulent A la Carte selections.

The dishes served here are created based on recipes that have been handed down from generations in the Forlino family. Every dish is prepared to highlight the freshest, prime ingredients, keeping the integrity of a rich culinary tradition.

In Privato you enter in Osvaldo's dining room as it was in Italy.

The atmosphere is unique and warm with family paintings on the walls, a wooden cellar with a wide collection of wines, lamps, candles and large carpets on the floor and it will make you feel like dining amongst family.

It's a beautiful venue for hosting family gatherings, business corporate events and for those special occasions that call for a more tailored experience.
